

Letter Of Recommendation

I am pleased to write a letter of recommendation for XXXXXXXXXXXX as a part of his application to foreign universities. He was my student at Computer Engineering at XXXXXXXXXXX University. I have been teaching in this institution since last 8 years, XXXXXXXXXXXX is among the very talented student produced by the institution in this period. He was a very good student extremely quick in grasping the concepts and ideas. He is keen to learn new things. He is hard working person; works well with people and is courteous and dependable.

He possesses not only a critical mind but, he also represents the ideal combination should after in a thorough professional. He is punctual, prompt and complete in his work. His attitude towards colleagues is cooperative and congenial. His communication skills, both in speaking and writing, are excellent. His conduct is upright and decent. I am positively confident that he will show excellent performance in his higher studies and advanced graduate level research. He is both professionally and academically sound in his chosen field of specialization i.e. Computer Engineering.

His background has instilled in his strong sense of discipline and perseverance that is commendable. His extra-curricular activities show a competitive attitude and he has a very strong motivation for whatever task he pursues. He was my student for Advance Java subject. He was very curious about programming and he always wanted to make unique project. In final year project, His project was one of the best and unique.

In summary, I would very much like him to match your Masters program; I think he would be an outstanding asset to your organization. I give him my highest recommendation and wish the best of luck and success in his future endeavor.

Sincerely,
